JURY DEMAND

Plaintiffs' jury demand does not contain any factual or legal assertions to which a response is required.

GENERAL DENIAL

Defendants deny each and every allegation in the Complaint not specifically admitted.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Without admitting liability as to any of the claims asserted in the Complaint or assuming any burden of proof that they would not otherwise bear under applicable law, Defendants assert the following affirmative defenses to each and every cause of action alleged in the Complaint. Defendants reserve the right to amend or supplement its affirmative defenses.

Defendants also reserve all affirmative defenses under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(c) and any other defenses, at law or in equity, that may now exist or in the future be available based on discovery and further factual investigation in this case. As indicated in the Preliminary Statement above, Defendants' investigation in this matter is ongoing and Defendants reserve the right to supplement or modify any portion of this Answer, including but not limited to by asserting additional affirmative or other defenses or claims not yet asserted herein, at any time and consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

First Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. Included in, but not limiting such challenge, Defendants reassert all grounds set forth in its previously filed motion to dismiss as if fully reasserted here.

Second Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs lack antitrust or Article III standing to assert their claims.

Third Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations.

Fourth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs cannot prove the requisite elements of fraudulent concealment, equitable estoppel, statutory tolling provisions, or any other theory under which Plaintiffs seeks to toll the applicable statutes of limitations under the federal laws pursuant to which Plaintiffs purport to bring claims.

Fifth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims and the claims of others alleged to be members of the putative class are barred, in whole or in part, because they have not sustained any cognizable injury or antitrust injury caused by any action of Defendants.

Sixth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are foreclosed because Plaintiffs have not alleged and cannot establish a proper relevant product or geographic market in which competition has been harmed or prove market or monopoly power in such a market.

Seventh Defense

Plaintiffs' claims, in whole or in part, are barred because Defendants' conduct is not subject to the per se standard of liability under the Sherman Act, and Defendants' conduct does not violate any other standard of liability, including the quick look standard or the antitrust rule of reason.

Eighth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because the alleged conduct is the result of the competitive process and has led to procompetitive results, and the procompetitive benefits of Defendants' conduct is substantially outweighed by any alleged anticompetitive effect.

Ninth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs' alleged injuries were not caused by any act or omission related to Defendants.

Tenth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants' alleged acts or omissions did not substantially lessen competition in any properly defined product or geographic market.

Eleventh Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because some or all of the acts alleged against Defendants are expressly permitted by state or federal statute, regulation, or other laws.

Twelfth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of waiver, estoppel, unclean hands, and/or laches.

Thirteenth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any claimed injury or damage has been offset by benefits Plaintiffs received with respect to the challenged conduct.

Fourteenth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs failed to mitigate damages, if any, allegedly suffered as a result of the conduct it alleges.

Fifteenth Defense

Any damages that Plaintiffs allege to have suffered are too remote, speculative, and/or uncertain to allow for a recovery. Such damages are not capable of ascertainment and allocation.

Sixteenth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that Plaintiffs seek damages that are duplicative of damages sought in other actions.

Seventeenth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because its alleged damages, if any, are speculative, and because of the impossibility of ascertaining and allocating these alleged damages.

Eighteenth Defense

Any equitable relief sought by Plaintiffs is barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs have potentially available an adequate remedy at law.

Nineteenth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because this action does not meet the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23. For example, common questions of law or fact do not predominate over questions affecting individual class members and thus this action is not maintainable as a class action. Other requirements of Rule 23 are similarly not met.

Twentieth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred because all of Defendants' actions alleged by Plaintiffs were lawful, justified, procompetitive, economical, and carried out in the furtherance of Defendants' legitimate business interests.

Twenty-First Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred because any conduct by or on behalf of Defendants alleged in the Complaint was taken independently in good faith and was legally or equitably protected by applicable privileges, and/or was undertaken in pursuit of legitimate business interests.

Twenty-Second Defense

Insofar as Plaintiffs allege that Defendants violated the antitrust rule of reason, such claims are barred, among other reasons, because the Complaint does not allege a properly defined relevant market, because any restraints complained of are ancillary to legitimate, procompetitive activities, and because the Complaint does not allege how the procompetitive effects of Defendants' legitimate activities are outweighed by anticompetitive effects.

Twenty-Third Defense

To the extent that Plaintiffs seek a remedy of unjust enrichment, restitution, or disgorgement for an alleged violation of Section 1 or Section 2 of the Sherman Act, those remedies are barred.

Twenty-Fourth Defense

Plaintiffs' injuries, losses, or damages (if any) which were not proximately caused by its own actions resulted from the acts or omissions of third parties over whom Defendants had no control. The acts of such third parties constitute intervening or superseding causes of the harm, if any, suffered by Plaintiffs.

Twenty-Fifth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred to the extent that they agreed to arbitration or chose a different forum for the resolution of their claims.

Twenty-Sixth Defense

Plaintiffs' claims are barred because they are indirect purchasers of the services on which they base their claims.

Twenty-Seventh Defense

Defendants adopt by reference any applicable affirmative defense set forth by any other Defendant (should any other Defendant appear in this action) not expressly set forth herein.

Twenty-Eighth Defense

Insofar as Plaintiffs allege that Defendants' conduct constituted per se violations of the antitrust laws, such claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants do not have market or monopoly power over any properly defined “tying” product.

Twenty-Ninth Defense

Insofar as Plaintiffs allege that Defendants’ conduct constituted per se violations of the antitrust laws, such claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants’ conduct did not cause foreclosure of any volume of commerce in any relevant “tied” product market.

Thirtieth Defense

Insofar as Plaintiffs allege that Defendants’ conduct constituted per se violations of the antitrust laws, such claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants’ conduct did not cause foreclosure of any volume of commerce in any relevant “tied” product market.

Thirty-First Defense

Insofar as Plaintiffs allege that Defendants’ conduct constituted Rule of Reason violations of the antitrust laws, such claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Defendants’ conduct did not cause substantial foreclosure in any relevant “tied” product market.

Thirty-Second Defense

Plaintiffs’ claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs have failed to allege any exclusionary or anticompetitive conduct.

Thirty-Third Defense

Plaintiffs’ prayer for attorneys’ fees should be stricken, in whole or in part, because there is no basis, factual, legal or otherwise, to support an award of attorneys’ fees.

RESERVATION OF DEFENSES AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendants hereby give notice that they intend to assert and reply upon any and all such other defenses and affirmative defenses that may become available or apparent as the action proceeds, and thus reserve the right to amend this Answer to assert such Defenses.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Defendants pray as follows:

1. That the proposed class not be certified;
2. That Plaintiffs take nothing by the Complaint;
3. That the Complaint be dismissed with prejudice;
4. That the Court enter judgment in favor of Defendants;
5. That the Court award Defendants their costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees; and
6. That the Court award further relief as deemed just and proper.
